

The American Academy of Pediatrics invites you to join the Friends of Children Fund.

Contributions to the Fund support education and research programs for children, parents, and pediatricians. Through the generosity of our corporate friends, the Academy will remain a strong voice for children.

The Academy is committed to the attainment of optimal physical, mental, and social health and well-being for all infants, children, adolescents, and young adults.

BUILD A RELATIONSHIP

As a corporate member of the Friends of Children Fund (FCF), your organization has the opportunity to enhance its relationship with the American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP). Corporate members have access to leaders in pediatrics and can play a role in developing programs that support the Academy's mission to ensure the health and well-being of children. Member activities enable you to develop and strengthen relationships with Academy leaders and network with AAP representatives.

SUPPORT PRIORITY PROJECTS

Since its inception in 1989, the Friends of Children Fund has enabled the Academy to aggressively respond to emerging child health issues. The Fund has provided more than $3 million in grants to support AAP activities that increase access to children's health services, educate families about issues affecting children, provide research grants, and support the advancement of pediatrics.

Programs supported include:

- Community Child Health Programs
- Neonatal Resuscitation Program
- Resident Research Grants
- Medical Student Outreach
- Violence Prevention
- Disaster Relief
