

There's an even better way to protect your child in a disaster.

From safety helmets to sunscreen, there are many proven ways to protect your child from the hazards of everyday life. But in case of a disaster, you need to be better equipped.

Talk with your pediatrician or visit aap.org/disasters and print the 4-step Family Disaster Action Plan.

