

Tips for Enjoying Reading Aloud

Read to your child every day-even if only for a few minutes. It is your time together.

Reading should be fun. You don't have to finish a story if your child loses interest.

Let your child choose the book even if it means reading the same book over and over.

Invite your child to "read" to you from a familiar book that he has memorized from having heard it so often read to him.

Stop and ask about the illustrations or what your child thinks will happen next. The answers may amaze you.

Read from a variety of children's books, including fairy tales, poetry, and nursery rhymes.

Follow your child's interests in choosing the books. There are many great books on non-fiction subjects such as the ocean or dogs.
