

HEMATOLOGY/ONCOLOGY

SECTION MEMBERSHIP

This section welcomes the following Member types:

Fellows, Post-Residency Training Fellows, Candidate Fellows, Residents, Emeritus Fellows, Corresponding Fellows, and Honorary Fellows.

Sponsor Requirements:

None

Special Requirements:

Applicant must be actively involved in some aspect of the study of hematologic or oncologic diseases.

SECTION AFFILIATE MEMBERSHIP

1. Licensed physicians and clinical research associates not eligible for membership in the Academy
2. Registered nurses, nurse clinicians, clinical nurse specialists, hematology/oncology nurses, nurse practitioners, and physicians assistants who are demonstrably active in pediatric hematology/oncology
3. Psychologists and social workers that are demonstrably active in pediatric hematology/oncology.

Special Requirements:

- * These professionals must be a part of a pediatric hematology/oncology team under the direct supervision of a certified pediatric hematologist/oncologist within a pediatric hematology/oncology department or division with at least 50% of their time devoted to the care of infants, children, and adolescents with hematological/oncological diseases.

For more information about this section visit www.aap.org/sections/hemonc/index.htm

Dues/year: Emeritus Fellows - $0*, Residents - $10*, Section Affiliates - $60, All other member types - $15*

*In addition to national dues