

MEDICAL STUDENTS, RESIDENTS AND FELLOWSHIP TRAINEES

SECTION MEMBERSHIP

This Section welcomes the following Member types:

The membership of the Section consists of:

1. Resident Members of the American Academy of Pediatrics (Membership in the Section is a standard privilege of membership in the American Academy of Pediatrics for Resident Members in good standing).
2. Post-Residency Training Members who are in post-graduate training programs and who are interested in the objectives of the Section.

Applicants must submit:

Completed application and verification of residency status from the program director.

SECTION AFFILIATE MEMBERSHIP

Qualifications:

The Section accepts medical students who are in an accredited medical school program approved by the American Association of Medical Colleges or the American Association of Colleges of Osteopathic Medicine.

Applicants must submit:

Completed application.

❖ For more information about this section visit www.aap.org/sections/resident/

Dues/year: Residents and Post-Residency Training Members - $0*, Affiliates - $16

*In addition to national dues