

2010 NATIONAL NEONATAL EDUCATION AWARD CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

DEADLINE March 1, 2010

The AAP is now accepting nominations for the Section on Perinatal Pediatrics National Neonatology Education Award. This award will be given annually to an individual who has made outstanding contributions to education in neonatal-perinatal medicine. The recipient will receive a cash award.

The candidate's contribution may be one of innovative education technique; original concept; seminal event; an exemplary, effective, high impact program; or a substantial long-term contribution to the highest ideals of education. Preference will be made to educational efforts that have had a demonstrable effect on clinical care.

The recipient is chosen each year at the Perinatal Spring Workshop, which this year is on April 9-11, 2010 in Scottsdale, Arizona. Final AAP Board of Directors approval will be granted in June of 2010 and the recipient will be notified at that time.

If you wish to nominate an individual, or yourself, please submit:

- a letter of interest including justification as to why this individual should receive the award;
- the candidate's curriculum vitae;
- two supporting letters from two members of the Section on Perinatal Pediatrics

If you are interested in re-nominating an individual, please contact Jim Couto before submitting any materials.

ALL INFORMATION MUST BE COMPLETE BEFORE MAILING IN YOUR NOMINATION.

Please send all materials no later than March 1, 2010 to:

Jim Couto, MA
Director, Division of Hospital & Surgical Services
American Academy of Pediatrics
141 N.W. Point Blvd
Elk Grove Village, IL 60007
jcouto@aap.org
847/434-7656

The Neonatal Education Award is sponsored by a grant from Mead Johnson Nutritionals and will be presented at the meeting of the Perinatal Section during the 2010 National Conference & Exhibition of the American Academy of Pediatrics in San Francisco, CA.