

Developing Community Linkages

A baby's most basic needs have to be met to grow up healthy. The following information will help you to meet those needs for your child.

Contact information for local resources

Program/Service	Telephone	Contact
Food Stamps
WIC
Head Start
Housing
Transportation
Employment
Social Service
Outreach
After-School Care
Child Care
Parent Education
Mental Health
Youth Services

IN CASE OF AN EMERGENCY

Parental Stress/Parent-Child Conflicts—voice: 800/448-3000/TTY: 800/448-1833

(Girls and Boys Town National Hotline)

Poison Control—voice or TTY: 800/222-1222

Medical Emergencies—911

For local information, please call:

American Academy of Pediatrics

DEDICATED TO THE HEALTH OF ALL CHILDREN™