The medicolegal risks of practicing pediatrics are constantly changing. Keep up by reading “Pediatricians and the Law” every month. Timely topics and practical risk reduction tips make it one of the most popular features in AAP News and it provides important information to share with your practice manager.