

DDH Evaluation Training Video

<http://hipdysplasia.org/for-physicians/pediatricians-and-primary-care-providers/lectures-and-videos/>

- ◆ Available on International Hip Dysplasia Institute Website
- ◆ Reliable and Valid
- ◆ Viewers retain knowledge and skill of examination at 1 months and 1 year
- ◆ Available on SumTotal, SLHS Educational Website after July 2016

The screenshot shows a web browser displaying a video player for 'Developmental Dysplasia of the Hip'. The page header includes 'Resources FOR PHYSICIANS' and navigation links for 'Home \ For Physicians \ Pediatricians and Primary Care Providers \ Lectures and Videos'. The video player interface features a sidebar with a 'Chapters' list and a main video area. The sidebar lists various topics, with 'Education module' highlighted. The video area displays the title 'Developmental Dysplasia of the Hip' and 'Education Module' over a background image of a child's hip being examined.

Resources
FOR PHYSICIANS

Lectures and Videos

Home \ For Physicians \ Pediatricians and Primary Care Providers \ Lectures and Videos

DDH Examination

Developmental Dysplasia of the Hip (00:07 / 35:55) ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS HELP COPYRIGHT RESOURCES

The Royal Children's Hospital Melbourne

Chapters Notes

Welcome

Education module

- Developmental dysplasia of the hip
- Anatomy of the hip
- The pathology of hip dysplasia
- Presentation of DDH
- Risk factors
- Examination
- Instability and dislocation
- Asymmetry
- General examination
- Examination difficulties
- Importance of early diagnosis
- Examination time points
- Investigations
- Referral process
- Safe wrapping
- DDH Quiz
- Resources
- Useful Links

Developmental Dysplasia of the Hip
Education Module