AAP Section on Complementary and Integrative Medicine (SOCIM)

- Established in 2005 with 53 charter members
- Currently has over 200 members
- Strives to promote optimal well-being of all children by promoting an interest in and commitment to enhancing pediatric care by effectively integrating safe and effective complementary therapies into comprehensive care for infants, children and adolescents.
SO CIM Successes

- Listserv for clinical questions and networking
- NIH NCCAM Advocacy for pediatric research
- NCE and other educational offerings
- PiR review articles (2006)
- Talk with Your Doctor poster (2007)
- PediaLink article on Colds (2008 – 2009)
- CAM clinical report (2008)
- Patient education brochure (2009)
Visit www.aap.org/sections/chim