Healthy Tomorrows Partnership for Children
Sustaining Community-Based Innovations

INVESTMENT

- 47 states where Healthy Tomorrows projects have been funded
- 280 projects
- $70 million distributed over 28 years
- Primary funding streams:
  - 30% Federal dollars
  - 70% Matching dollars

IMPACT

Grantee outcomes
- 86% Improved children’s access to care
- 81% Enhanced recognition of child health issues
- 79% Enhanced visibility of organization
- 77% Enhanced cultural competency of services
- 77% Enhanced family participation in services

REACH

- 735,750 individuals served (2010–2014)
- 75% of individuals served are from racial and ethnic minority groups

Primary areas of intervention
- Medical home/care coordination
- Mental/behavioral health
- Maternal and child health
- Child development/school readiness
- Overweight/obesity

Types of organizations funded by HTPCP
- 18% Hospitals
- 16% Universities
- 15% Federally qualified health centers
- 9% Health departments
- 2% American Academy of Pediatrics chapters
- 3% School districts
- 37% Nonprofit agencies

SUSTAINABILITY

Sustainability rates
- Federal funding period (1–5 years)
- Year 1: 98%
- Year 5+: 94%

HTPCP funding sources
- Government funding (federal, state, local): 53%
- Sponsoring organization (clinic, hospital, university, etc.): 51%
- Foundation/United Way: 30%
- Local funding (business/corporation, community fundraising): 21%

Top sustainability factors
- 72% Strong institutional commitment (buy-in)
- 70% Early planning for sustainability
- 70% Strong community partnerships
- 53% Worked continuously to ensure funding
- 51% Used evaluation data to leverage funding

Sources:
- American Academy of Pediatrics
- HTPCP grantee post-funding surveys
- Health Resources and Services Administration, Maternal and Child Health Bureau, Discretionary Grant Information System