Public Affairs & Medical Internship
Washington DC Office

Since 1981, the AAP Department of Federal Affairs has had an internship program primarily designed for those interested in learning about child health policy, the legislative process, federal advocacy, and public affairs activities.

The internship is available to medical students, residents, and post-residency trainees with an interest and/or specialty in pediatrics. Internships are a minimum of 4 consecutive weeks, and can be scheduled at any time during the year except for the month of August.

Internship applicants must demonstrate the approval of their current medical/residency program. Please complete the below form and send it with your application.
